

Michael Treichl
Managing Director, Audley Capital Advisors LLP

Michael Treichl is co-founder and Managing Director of Audley Capital Advisors LLP, a London based investment advisor to hedge funds and other niche alternative investment products with aggregate assets of ca €500 million (31/12/2010).

Prior to Audley, Mr Treichl co-founded Bessemer Vogel & Treichl GmbH, based in Düsseldorf, the European arm of Bessemer Holdings LP, a $2 billion private equity fund (now Lindsay Goldberg & Bessemer). BV&T and affiliated entities were responsible for private equity investments of $470 million in Germany which realised proceeds of $2.85 billion. Prior to BV&T, Mr Treichl co-led the 1995 acquisition and subsequent restructuring of Head-Tyrolia-Mares, the financially distressed Austrian sporting goods group, which generated $400 million in equity value upon its floatation as HEAD NV on the NY stock exchange in September 2000. Prior to 1995, Mr Treichl spent almost 20 years in investment banking, focussed on M&A advisory and leveraged buy-outs. He held senior positions at SG Warburg in London, Merrill Lynch in New York and Lazard Frères in New York.

Michael Treichl holds an MBA from Harvard Business School and a Dr juris (with distinction) from the University of Vienna, Austria.
