

Richard Nicholas Launder

Richard Launder has worked in the I.T. Industry for nearly 40 years. The early part of his career was spent with a number of Hardware Companies, Olivetti, IBM, and Tandem computers, in which he held a number of technical, sales and sales management roles.

The last 20 years of Mr. Launder's career have been in Application Software in the payments industry. Most of that time with ACI Worldwide, where he was President of ACI's EMEA division (Europe, Middle East and Africa) for most of his time there. For the last two years he has been President of Global Operations for ACI in which he was responsible for Sales, Marketing, Customer Support and Implementations.

Mr. Launder is a Non Executive Director for four other Software and Services company in the United Kingdom. He is also Chairman of a Further Education College in the United Kingdom.