

PRESS RELEASE

NEW APPOINTMENT IN TAS GROUP

Alfonso Nobilio new Chief Operating Officer at TAS GROUP

Milan, 1 July 2013

In TAS since 2009, and former head of the Commercial Department in Italy and abroad, Alfonso Nobilio has recently assumed the position of Chief Operating Officer at TAS. Nobilio will therefore be responsible for directing all operations and strategies of the company.

The new appointment, in continuity and in support of the CEO, Valentino Bravi, confirms the intention of the Group to enhance and expand the business, centralizing the management of operations to make them more effective and in line with the new strategic goals including the business expansion in EMEA and the U.S. Nobilio, which in recent years has held various executive positions at leading companies in the ICT sector, will have the support of the various business units Director: Andrea Bianchi (E-Pay), Mario Mendia (Financial Markets), Agostino Pericoli (TASLab) and Marina Jacobone (Marketing & Channel).

About TAS Group

TAS Group, listed on the Italian Stock-Exchange since May 2000, provides software solutions for electronic money, payment systems and financial markets. TAS Group is an international group and serves Central Banks, major banking groups, leading service bureaux and some of the world's most renowned broker dealers.

For further information:
www.tasgroup.eu
solutions@tasgroup.eu

Press Agency:
Stefania Scurati, Baum Communication
Stefania.scurati@baum.it
335.10.93.149